Review of the Minor Prophets

"Gracious Father, thank you for the immense privilege of having our hearts and minds stirred by the teachings of some of the greatest men of faith in history—the Minor Prophets. As we review the incredible truths we have gleaned from their writings, will you continue to enlighten our hearts and give us a new tenderness to Your Holy Spirit?"

searching questions to consider and reconsider along the way. Now the time has come to put pen to paper and let your thoughts pour out
1.	What is the overall significance of the Old Testament prophets in human history?
2.	What does this period of history reveal about God and His ways?
3.	What does this period of history reveal about human nature?
4.	What is your personal response to God's prophetic activity?

One of the recurring themes we see throughout the Minor Prophets is the cry for righteousness and justice. Those same cries echo across the centuries today to our generation where righteousness and justice and reverence for the Holy God receive little attention.

righ 5.	teousness and justice and reverence for the Holy God receive little attention. Prayerfully consider how God might be leading you to: Speak words of honesty, truthfulness and moral accountability to a friend—
	Live out the principles of righteousness and justice in your circle of friends and neighbors
6.	Of the five Minor Prophets we studied, Amos, Joel, Nahum, Habakkuk and Haggai, which prophetic message resonated with you the most and why?
7.	As you look back on the powerful scenes we witnessed through these faithful prophets, including startling vistas of the future, which event had the most profound effect on your life of faith? Explain.
8.	What is the most significant personal discovery you made from your study of the Minor Prophets? How will you be different as a result?
sper God our	rship: There's no more appropriate way to wrap up our study of the Minor Prophets than to ad time basking in God's gracious character. We become different people when we focus on a and allow who God is to form who we are. As a result our attitudes and actions change and relationships are transformed. Our desire for righteousness and justice is enlarged. Worship together with your group recalling the many facets of His glorious Person!

-Bev Horn